Smithsonian MUSEUM ON MAIN STREET

Fort Clark Springs • Brackettville, Texas
November 21, 2026 – January 3, 2027

Legends at Las Moras

A six-week cultural program combining the Smithsonian traveling exhibit with local and regional displays throughout Southwest Texas, presentations, tours, performances, and special events. Each week will explore a different theme connected to the region's heritage—from frontier life and conservation to art, music, film, and innovation.

Week 5

December 18-25, 2026

Film, Theater, Music & Storytelling

As part of the Smithsonian Museum on Main Street program, Brackettville and Fort Clark Springs invite you to a one-of-a-kind celebration of film, music, and storytelling rooted in the rich cultural history of the Texas borderlands.

FEATURED EVENTS

Remembering Alamo Village
LEGACY REUNION

Film Screenings & Live Music
Panels, Presentations and more!

A Tribute to Johnny Rodriguez
Featuring
Aubry Rodriguez

Lomax Family Folk Legacy
JOHN LOMAX III

and more to be announced!

APPLY TO PRESENT
Limited spots, apply today!

Possible formats:
Talks, Screenings, Workshops, Demonstrations, Panels, Performances

Join us this holiday season

Celebrate the stories, sounds, and scenes that have shaped the entertainment industry from the Texas frontier. From cinema to music to live storytelling, experience the creative legacy that continues to inspire.

TEXAS HISTORICAL COMMISSION
REAL PLACES TELLING REAL STORIES

TEXAS HISTORICAL COMMISSION
TEXAS PECOS TRAIL
TEXAS HERITAGE TRAILS PROGRAM

TEXAS ARCHIVE OF THE MOVING IMAGE

Legends at Las Moras
Smithsonian MUSEUM ON MAIN STREET

FOR MORE INFORMATION EMAIL
SmithsonianKinneyCounty@gmail.com

Programming is tentative and subject to change. Complete list of partners and program schedule will be available online as updates are confirmed.*